5 1920

Cap[illegible] letters came to hand[illegible] Sunday morning. If you [illegible]t reply by return post me on time I am sick [illegible] You this.

Post open 4 pm

Yes I had arranged for to have Volunteers at 5 A.M. Watches at Mallaig.

I have handed the comm[illegible]dt all your letters also a covering [illegible] for Tom. he will deal with them

The Schedule you mention I have not received.

All your instructions for Easter Sat. has been carried out well.

with [illegible]ception of Athlone Exce[illegible] f[illegible] and in this case [illegible] Athlone Bridge was guarded [illegible]e Enemy. & all the Crossing [illegible] cracked (from 9.30 pm)

We had to procure boats & cross the river about 3 miles below the town, when we got to the Office at 11.25 pm it was also guarded by enemy Soldiers & police

I will see that the order will be carried out this time all the Police Barracks (employed) are burned to the ground, except in one Case and I will have this re-burned: also every instruction on the Order will be attended to in detail

I [illegible]der Dispatch Case [illegible]-8-0 beig Passed for [illegible] book NO1. Sent [illegible] dated Athlone

I have at all times stopped into the Commandants place. when he is not available.

Ref. A/G.

5th. May, 1920.

TO ACTING COMMANDANT,

WEST MEATH BRIGADE.

A Chara,

Your dispatch of the 3rd. inst. is acknowledged with your remission of £3 8.0. for 17 dozen copies of Manual. You say " Send them Rail Athlone! How shall I address them? You understand I have got no postal or railway address for Athlone, although you promised me several times to have this attended to.

I am glad to have your promise re activities. [illegible]th, you will agree is not up to the standard of neighbour[illegible]gades. It is not for me to assign [illegible], but it is [illegible] us to leave no stone unturned [illegible] efficiency sometimes in doing so, we may hurt [illegible] dear friends of ours, but [illegible] the many [illegible]ices we have to make for the g[illegible].

I am glad you made arrangements re G.A.A. matches. Let me know how they came off.

I never heard about posting letters to you before 4 p.m. as [illegible] never told me, so I fear the sickness must have arisen from some other cause.

I enclose a letter from the D/O.

The Handbooks shall be sent out on receipt of your address.

You say all the barracks were burned to the ground. Could you be more definite, and let me know the exact number that were evacuated, and the number that were burned. Would not this be the clearer way to make your report.

Beir Buadh,

ADJUTANT GENERAL.

A Capa

For the last week we have been getting police code messages. They are Greek to us as we find it impossible to decypher them. We have learned since that there is a code word issued every month & that H.Q. can supply it. Will you decipher the enclosed three messages & return them. Send me also the code word & how to use.

I sent up ~~one~~ a note a few days ago - 3 prisoners from Mt Joy & 2 from Galway (Mt Joy convicts. Galway awaiting trial) They want to know will they clear out or stop here & shall being arrested again let me know soon as possible, as they are anxious

Yours

D Burke (Bak. Comdt.)

1. Who told this officer that H.Q. could supply the codes?

2. All attached messages are the same they are telling the officers concerned that Sinn Feiners mean to burn all whiskey in Bonded Stores.

TO VICE C[illegible]NDANT,
WEST MEATH BRIGADE.

A Chara,

I have your dispatch of the 28th.inst.. Have you [illegible] schedule AG.6. 4.20. You will [illegible]ee that this job is e[illegible]tly carried out in Athlone and the othe[illegible] parts of your a[illegible] previous effort was a disgrace to th[illegible]de and to [illegible] officer and man engaged ther[illegible]

The excuse that the Br[illegible]sted is not [illegible] factory one. It was and is your duty to [illegible]prepared [illegible] moment to step into his work, and to do what he leaves [illegible]done.

The question of your resignation is one for the Director of Or[illegible]sation, but you will take these orders and see that they are carried out either by yourself or by some other person.

Let me have a c[illegible]ddress for the Brigade Commandant.

I shall e[illegible]pect [illegible]wer to this on Sunday.
